

One chilly morning, retired pilot Mwalimu walks his grandson Kijana to school near Kisaawe airport.....

Like people, animals look for food, shelter for nesting, water and also a place to relax after a beautiful meal next door....

To chase the birds they scare them with sounds they don't like but...they get used to that!

You can help prevent this!

This cartoon has been produced by:

AVIASSIST FOUNDATION

Independent | Innovative | non-profit

www.aviassist.org

Do you want to use this cartoon for the communities around your airport but you'd like it in Buganda, Kiswahili or Chinyanja? Get it touch with the AviAssist Foundation at info@aviassist.org and we can work with you to translate it in the language of your choice.

The AviAssist Foundation encourages the reproduction of this cartoon for aviation safety promotion purposes. All we ask in return is you letting us know that you use it.

This cartoon has been produced by the AviAssist Foundation, airport wildlife expert Gloria Bitekezi & cartoonist balijoezf@gmail.com with assistance of Albert de Hoon & KLM Royal Dutch Airlines.

The production has been funded with a grant from Groningen Airport Eelde